

Errata and apologies

Apology to Veronica Bullock and Margaret Birtley

In the November 2008 issue of Archives and Manuscripts the names of the authors of one paper were printed in the wrong order. As the guest editor for the issue I take full responsibility for the error and offer my sincere apologies to the authors. Veronica Bullock was the lead author for the paper entitled 'Will collections vanish in the urge to converge? Observations on convergent evolution in the collections sector'.

The correct citation for the paper is:

Veronica Bullock and Margaret Birtley, 'Will collections vanish in the urge to converge? Observations on convergent evolution in the collections sector', Archives and Manuscripts, vol. 36, no. 2, November 2008, pp. 128-147.

Karen Anderson

Guest editor, Archives and Manuscripts, vol. 36, no. 2, November 2008

Erratum, Archives and Manuscripts, vol. 37, no. 2, November 2009

On page 150 of the November 2009 issue of the journal, Kelvin Smith wrongly appears as one of the authors of Significance 2.0, which was published by the Collections Council of Australia in 2009. The correct publication details are as follows:

Roslyn Russell and Kylie Winkworth, Significance 2.0: a guide to assessing the significance of collections, Adelaide, Collections Council of Australia, 2009.

Apologies to the Collections Council of Australia and the authors of Significance 2.0 and to the author of the review, Sigrid McCausland.
