

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

G. L. Fischer B.A., is Archivist at the Public Library of South Australia.

Margaret L. Medcalf B.A., is a staff member of the J. S. Battye Library of West Australian History in Perth.

Lindsay Cleland B.A., is on the staff of the National Library of Australia. He has been acting as Secretary of the Working Party on the Guide to Collections project at present being initiated by the National Library.

Leslie R. Marchant is a Lecturer in History in the University of Western Australia. During 1959 he organised a programmed copying of naval records relating to the French discovery and settlement of New Zealand. Mr. Marchant compiled a bibliography of records entitled : " France and New Zealand; 1769-1846; A list of naval records in Paris ". Published by the Department of History, University of W.A., 1962.

J. H. M. Honniball B.A., is an Old Boy of Guildford Grammar School who recently was co-author of the history of Guildford Chapel. He has been a staff member of the Battye Library of West Australian History and the State Library in Perth.