

ABOUT CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

Dato' Alwi Jantan is Director of the National Archives of Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur. Dato' Alwi recently visited Australia and extended his tour to other countries in the Pacific Region, in the course of enquiries to determine the best way in which to plan the establishment of the National Library of Malaysia.

Barrie E. King is a science graduate, but one of his major spare-time activities is the preservation of film. He is a member of the Historical Films Sub-Committee of the State Film Centre, Perth, Western Australia.

Martin J. Ryman is a graduate of the University of Queensland, who worked as an archives assistant in the Queensland State Archives for some two years, prior to returning to the University for full-time study in connection with a proposed M.A. course.

Dean H. Keller is Curator of Special Collections at the Kent State University Libraries, Kent, Ohio, U.S.A.

Professor J.W. McCarty is Professor of Economic History, Faculty of Economics and Politics, Monash University, Melbourne.

John H. Love is in charge of the South Australian Archives.

K.A. Patterson is on the staff of the Archives Division, State Library of Victoria, Melbourne.

News notes have been provided by Mr F. Scott-Halliday, Archivist of the Commonwealth Banking Corporation, Mr. K.A. Polden, Archivist of the Reserve Bank of Australia, Mr F. Strahan, Archivist of the University of Melbourne, and others.