

About the Contributors

Brian Sydney Baldwin, MA (Cantab), ALAA (Archives), was for two years a British Council lecturer in Coimbra, Portugal. After six months with the South Pacific Commission Social Development Section and seven years with the National Library he joined the South Australian Archives in 1960 and has been Deputy Archivist since 1968, with period of up to two and a half years as Acting Principal Archivist.

Father D F Bourke, CM, MA, M Ed, historian, theologian, philosopher, is a priest in the Order of St Vincent de Paul, formerly teaching in seminaries. He is the author of two full length histories of the Catholic Church.

Carl Bridge, BA (Syd), PhD (Flinders) has recently completed writing South Australia's Library, 1834-1984, an official history of the State Library of South Australia and its predecessors which is due for publication in 1984. He is a lecturer in history at the University of New England, Armidale, NSW.

Lindsay Cleland, BA (Hons), Dip Admin, ALAA, is Assistant Director Australian Archives ACT Regional Branch. He is Past President of the Australian Society of Archivists and Secretary-General of PARBICA.

Mal Eutick, BSc (Hons), PhD, Dip. Museum Studies was for five years Senior Tutor for the Diploma In Museum Studies at Sydney University. He is Chairman of the Publications Committee of the NSW Branch of the Museums Association and editor of numerous texts on museum administration and law.

Sandra Hinchey has a BA and a Diploma in Archives Administration from the University of NSW. Upon completion of the course in 1980 she worked for two years as the archives officer for the Council of the City of Sydney. At present she is employed as the research officer in the Archives and Records Management Section of the Reserve Bank of Australia.

Warwick Hirst, graduated from the University of Sydney with a LL B and an MA in Medieval Studies. In 1982 he completed the Diploma in Archives Administration at the University of NSW, and is presently working as archivist for Lindeman (Holdings) Limited.

Tony Marshall, BEc, Dip Lib is Manuscript Librarian at the La Trobe Library, State Library of Victoria. He is editor of the La Trobe Library Journal.

John T Murphy holds a BA (Hons) degree in English Literature from the University of Sydney, and the Diploma in Archives Administration from the University of NSW. During 1983 he was working at the archives of Lindeman (Holdings) Limited, and is presently employed in the Manuscripts Section of the Mitchell Library.

Deborah Osborn will complete part-time this year, the Diploma in Archives Administration at the University of NSW. She is currently employed by Curo Management Services as a Records Officer and has a Bachelor of Arts from Sydney University with majors in French, History and Psychology.

Sister M Raphael, BA, Dip Ed was a secondary school teacher and latterly Principal of Our Lady's College, Victoria Square, Perth. Since retirement she has been assisting the organisation of the Catholic Archives.

Ken Smith, BA (Macq), is Archivist at the University of Sydney. Previously he was Archivist at the Council of the City of Sydney and at the University of Wollongong. He completed the Diploma in Archives Administration at the University of NSW in 1974. A member of council of the Australian Society of Archivists in the last bi-ennium, he is presently its honorary treasurer.

Helen Yoxall, BA, Dip Lib, Dip IM (Archiv Admin), has been on the staff of the Manuscripts Section, Mitchell Library, since 1978.