

About the Contributors

Bunmi Alegbeleye is a lecturer in the Department of Library Studies, University of Ibadan, Nigeria, teaching Archives Administration and Records Management.

Mark Brogan, BA (UWA), Dip. Archives Administration (UNSW) has been employed in the Archives Branch, State Library of South Australia since 1981.

Marianne Dacy is a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of our Lady of Sion, an international Catholic Order much involved in Jewish-Christian relations and social justice issues. She has a graduate diploma of Librarianship from North London Polytechnic, and has spent nine years in Israel, teaching, running a library and studying for a Master's degree in Jewish Philosophy at the Hebrew University.

Ted Ling is a Records Officer employed with the Australian Archives, New South Wales Regional Office since 1975. He is based in the Access/Information Services Sub-section, but has had extensive experience in all facets of archives work. Recently he co-ordinated the relocation of the Sydney City Office from the National Mutual Centre to the Raymond Engineers Building.

Margaret Medcalf, BA, Dip.Ed., ALAA, ARMA, is the Principal Librarian of the J S Battye Library of West Australian History and State Archivist of Western Australia.

Margaret Pearce is the Assistant Director, Administrative Structures and Analysis Section in the central office of the Australian Archives.

Graeme Powell was appointed Manuscript Librarian in the National Library of Australia in 1969 and he was subsequently the Principal Librarian, Australian Reference. Since January 1979 he has been the Australian Joint Copying Project Officer, based at the Australian High Commission in London.

Barbara Reed has a Diploma in Archives Administration. Formerly employed at Australian Archives, Canberra Region, she is a present Assistant to the Records Management Officer, Registrar's Division, University of Melbourne. She is a member of Council of the Australian Society of Archivists Incorporated, 1983-85.

David Roberts, BA (Syd) and Dip. Arch. Admin. (UNSW) is the archivist-in-charge of audio-visual records in the New South Wales Regional Office of the Australian Archives, and is a former Convenor of the Sydney Branch of the Australian Society of Archivists, Incorporated.

Tim Robinson, BA (Hons), Dip. IM (Archiv. Admin.) is Archives Officer of the Council of the City of Sydney, and co-honorary Archivist of the Society of Australian Genealogists. Photographic records and history of photography in Australia have been particular professional and personal interests.

Robert Thornton, BA (Flinders), MA (Melb) is an Archivist with the South Australian Archives where he has worked in both the Reference Services and the Acquisitions and Processing sections. He previously taught history as a tutor at Flinders and La Trobe universities.