

Contents

Vol 13 Number 2

November 1985

EDITORIAL	109
Thirty Years of Archives and Manuscripts
Jim Gibbney and Allan Horton	Fools rush in 111
Jim Gibbney	... where angels fear to tread	116
Robert Sharman	Periodical fits of morality	118
Andrew Lemon	Into the great unknown	126
Baiba Berzins	From white to red	130
Don Brech	Interregnum or Between two cities	134
Nancy Lutton	What editing means to me	137
EDITORIAL RHYMES	143
Ten years of the Australian Society of Archivists
Michael Saclier	In Retrospect	145
Baiba Berzins	Thoughts about the next decade	147
FIFTH BIENNIAL CONFERENCE	151
HONORARY MEMBERSHIPS:	152
NATIONAL ARCHIVAL FORUM	155
Robert Thornton	Hotel Records in the South Australian Archives	162
Andrew Griffin	Computerisation in the New Guinea Collection	178
Graeme Powell	Australian Joint Copying Project	181
Lindsay Cleland	PARBICA 1984-5	189
CORRESPONDENCE	196
BOOK REVIEWS
Carl Newton: Strategic Planning for Records Management and archives Reviewed by Janet Howse	197
J.A. Keene and Michael Roper: Planning ... a document reprographing service ... Reviewed by Lee McGregor	199
Mechanical Eye in Australia and Archival care of still photographs Reviewed by Tim Robinson	201
Directory of Research on Women in Australia 1985 Reviewed by Colleen Pritchard	203
NEWS NOTES	205
INTERNATIONAL NOTES	217
PUBLICATION NOTES	222
A.S.A. Publications	227	