

About the Contributors

Glenda Acland, B.A., is a graduate of the University of Queensland where she was appointed the foundation University Archivist in 1982. From 1972 to 1980 she worked as an Archivist in the Survey and Disposal Branch of the Australian Archives, A.C.T. Regional Operation. Her experience has included evacuating records from Darwin in 1975 following Cyclone Tracy, a short-term aid assignment in the field of archival development in Western Samoa in 1978 and a twelve-month secondment to advise on the establishment of an Archives at the University of Queensland in 1981.

Tam Best graduated Dip Arch Admin at UNSW in 1979. First employed at ANU Archives of Business and Labour between 1980 and 1982, he left to take up the position of archivist at the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in Melbourne. He was appointed as Senior Archivist of S.R.A. and U.T.A. in November 1985.

Clive Smith is currently Senior Archivist, Westpac Banking Corporation, Sydney. Formerly with the Australian Archives, Canberra, where appointments included Archivist, Survey and Disposal, A.C.T. Regional Office, and Senior Project Officer, Disposal (Procedures and Standards) Central Office. Contributed to 'Archives and Administrative Change: Some Methods and Approaches' by P.J. Scott in Archives and Manuscripts. Treasurer, A.S.A., 1981-1983, President 1985-1987.

Colin Smith B.A. (Adelaide) Dip Arch Admin (UNSW) has been the Archivist of the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization since 1978. He was previously employed at the Archives of Business and Labour at the Australian National University, and at the Australian Archives.

John A. Spink MSc, B.A. (Hons), FRACI, C.Chem. is a Senior Research Scientist with the CSIRO Division of Materials Science at Clayton, Victoria. He is preparing a history of the war-time origins and early years of the CSIR/CSIRO Tribophysics Laboratory (which later became the Division of Materials Science) for his M.A. Thesis. He is an Associate in the History and Philosophy of Science Department at the University of Melbourne and Chairman of the History and Archives Committee of the Royal Australian Chemical Institute.