

About the Contributors

Jan Brazier is a part-time student in the Archives Administration course at UNSW. She is currently working as a researcher on a project surveying war memorials in Australia.

Peter Crush is the President of the Australian Society of Archivists and the Archivist of the Corporation of the City of Adelaide.

Dr. A. Lynn Martin lectures in History at the University of Adelaide. He is a Reformation scholar who has published extensively, especially on the Jesuits.

Jane Nokes is Corporate Archivist of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Toronto. She is active in business archive groups in North America and has been a speaker at many conferences and workshops. She also lectures in Archives Management.