

Australian Society of Archivists Incorporated

CONFERENCE/SEMINAR PAPERS

(Write to PO Box 83, O'Connor ACT 2601)

Managing Business Archives

Papers include "Appraisal of Business Records—Evidential and Informational Values", "Appraisal of Business Records—Legal and Financial Values", "Arrangement and Description of Business Archives", "Basic Conservation", "Selling the Idea of a Business Archives Programme", "The Role of Collecting Institutions in Maintaining a Company's Archives", "How to Make a Start and Where to Find Help". $10.00 ($8.00 ASA members)

1977 Conference

Topics include "Starting an Archives", "One Profession or Many?", "Scoring Archival Goals", "Access to Records". $5.00 ($4.00 ASA members)

1981 Conference

Topics include "Australia's Archives to 1838", "1839-1900", "1901-1945", "1946 to Today", "The Archivist's Dilemma: What are our Responsibilities?", "Order or Chaos", "Retain or Destroy", "Keeping Up To Date". $12.00 ($9.00 ASA members)

1983 Conference

Topics include "Future Trends in Historical Research", "Aspects of Management", "Terminology", "Creation of Records by EDP and its Implications for the Archivist", "Electronic Devices as Tools of the Archivist", "Priorities and Allocation of Resources". $15.00 ($12.00 ASA members)

1985 Conference

Topics include "Business Archives and the Law", "Archives Legislation and Local Government", "10 Years on: the Role and Value of the Society", "The Image of the Profession", "Competing Priorities and Resource Allocation in Archives". $15.00 ($12.00 ASA members)

1987 Conference

Topics include "Why belong? National archival associations and their international applications", "Small archives: designing for growth", "The role of archivists in the conservation of the national heritage", "The objectives and functions of conservation in relation to archival collections", "The Public Records Office 1977 to 1987 and beyond", "Influence of new technologies on research trends", "The Australian Science Archives Project: its role, its future", "Educating archivists. What do we need?", "Appraisal of records created by the new technologies", "Computerisation and the archives database in the New Guinea Collection, Michael Somare Library, University of PNG", "Australian, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea Copying Project", "The interface between archivists, librarians, records managers and information managers". $20.00 ($15.00 ASA members)