Articles longer than 5 000 words may need to be divided into parts and published in one or more issues.

Illustrations are welcome - good quality black and white prints are best for reproduction.

The Macquarie Dictionary and the fifth edition of the Australian Government Publishing Service Style Manual are used for spelling and style, including endnotes. Bibliographic details should be given in full, without abbreviations.

Where articles have been fully refereed, a statement to this effect appears following the abstract.
